Indian, Native, Aboriginal, Indigenous, First Nations, First Peoples - Which Is Correct?

Ever since Europeans had contact with the inhabitants of Turtle Island (North America) over 500 years ago they have been creating names in their languages in an attempt to create identifiers that lump all first inhabitants of Turtle Island into one group.

This article by Dr. Ed Connors of the Mohawk Wolf Clan, is written to help people determine respectful terms to identify Indigenous people. Originally published on the CASP website.

Fundraising Psychology Part Four: Feeling Good vs Doing The Most Good

In our Fundraising Psychology series, we have seen how altruism and giving fascinate psychologists, and that their discoveries show what conditions encourage and discourage giving. Researchers find that it's either through emotional bias or logical fallacy that donors often make decisions that do not maximize the good done with their funds. The findings of their work provides valuable information to not-for-profits who look to maximize their fundraising.

Government of Ontario Passes PTSD Legislation

Following in the footsteps of Manitoba and Alberta, the Ontario government has passed legislation about PTSD which accepts that post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) is work-related in first responders (i.e. emergency personnel). Under the Supporting Ontario's First Responders Act, this legislation will speed up access to the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board (WSIB), resources, and treatment for first responders affected by PTSD.

News from our Member Centres

Distress Centre Niagara
DC Niagara's 4th Annual Charity Golf Tournament happens June 3, 2016. Please join us for a wonderful day on the golf course! Your support will help us to provide 24-hour effective, confidential, non-judgmental and empowering telephone support to those in our community who are in distress or crisis. Last year we answered over 13,000 calls! Click here for info.

Distress Centre Oakville
DC Oakville's recent fundraiser, the 2nd annual Defeat Depression Walk, exceeded their fundraising goal by 128% and raised $32,000! See our embedded press release, and mark your calendars now for next year's walk on May 6th, 2017.

Spectra
Spectra staff and leadership volunteers are participating in extensive training on Solution-Focused Helping Conversations framework this summer. Spectra is utilizing the expertise of Dr. Ronald Warner, the founder and director of the Solution-Focused counselling Program at the University of Toronto, and Joanna Boutiller, a graduate of this impressive program. This will allow Spectra to integrate Solution-Focused into all of our communications with callers & clients. This model focused on solution-talk and is positive in its approach.
Spectra is also excited to welcome two placement students from the Mental Health and Addictions program at Humber College for eight intensive weeks.

Please email us to share your centre’s news and upcoming events in e-News & Views.
